Dear Arthur,

I want to compliment you on the fine job you did in directing the week-long bureau chiefs conference. The fact that it went off without a hitch is a tribute to your careful planning. The extensive planning and meticulous execution was well appreciated by me and, I am sure, by the bureau chiefs. I think this year's event caused us less worry and concern than ever, thanks to your careful planning and handling. The extra time and effort was well worth it.

Sincerely,
